The Ailse effect
Aostrallas Super Market Stors

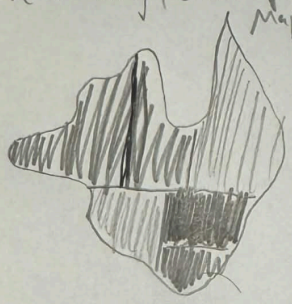

0-1 Footprint — 02 two chains — 03 Market — 04 spending

Super Market Receipt

Coles

1. Where Are the two chains?

0.1 Store density / Choropleth Map of Aos

Per 100k

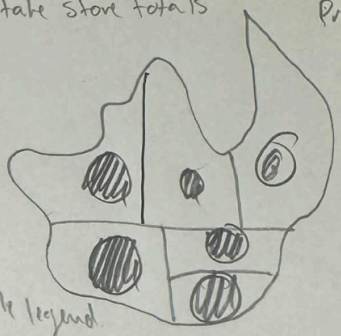

6.0 — — 8.5

Colour = stores per 100k

Deeper colour Equal More store per resident.

02 State store totals

Proportional Symbol Map

Example legend

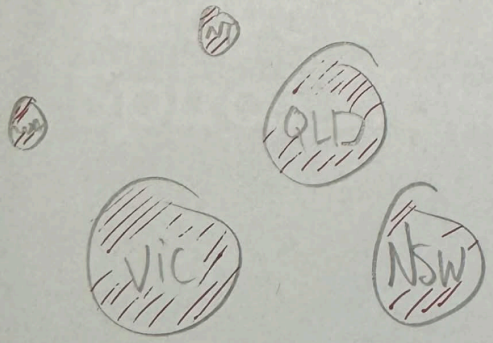

10 100 1000

in thousands

Circle Area = Total Stores

03 States As circle

Cartogram

Area = stores total.

Shade/colour equals how much woolworths %

04 Stores contrenwon differences

Dot Density Map.

• Woolworths • Coles

• 25 • 50 • 75

Dots/size of dots represent Concentration/distribution of two stores

02 Who has the bigger footprint.
Compare Woolworths and Coles then explain

05 Store counts by state. Grouped Bars.
red = coles
Black = woolworths
NSW
Vic
QLD
WA
SA

06 Gap Per Person Connected Dots
WA
NSW
WA
Vic
Tas
● = coles ■ = woolworths
the connected points show size of gap

07 Population vs Total Scatterplot.
Population
Stores
NSW
Vic
Tas
QLD
SA
means national rate.

08 Chain → state Tree map Hierarchy
NSW
WA
Other
Area = store count.
Colour means parent it belong to

09. One state 4 Measures. Parallel cords selected state being viewed.
Woolworths
Coles
Stores/100k
each axis diff units, red highlights selected state.

03 Who gets the Grocery sales
Historical sales

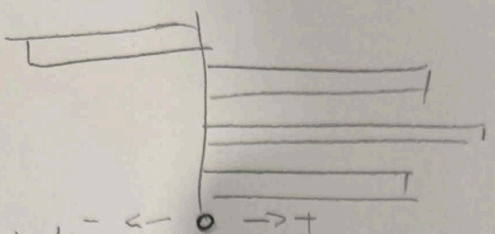

10 57.3 out of 100 waffle
Squares represent percentage.
Shaded means part of it.
Compares sales of coles and woolies to everyone else.

11 Changin ranks Bump Chart.
Early
Later
Y = Rank Greater Y is Best
does not represent sales amount.

12 Who Gained / Lost

Diverging Bars.

Metcash
Aldi Woolworths
Coles

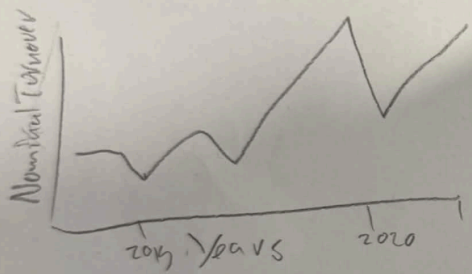

Bars left to right of zero represent percentage point change

---

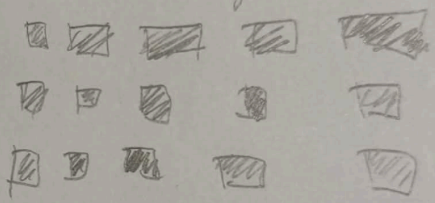

04 How Did Food Turnover Change?

ABS Nominal Food retailing turnover

13 Food Turnover line chart

14 Growth By Month Heat map

Light → Dark (higher Growth)
Cells by Year x Month
Colour = Yearly Change.

Conclusion / Three Takeaways

1. Total Stores ! = ~~person~~ per person density
2. Store counts ! = grocery sales share.
3. Turnover Dollars ! = prices or Quantities.